at the Omni Shoreham Hotel

Chapter I

Down the Rabbit-Hole

Alice was beginning to get very tired of sitting by her sister on the bank, and of having nothing to do: once or twice she had peeped into the book her sister was reading, but it had no pictures or conversations in it, “and what is the use of a book,” thought Alice “without pictures or conversations?”

Alice did not think it so very much out of the way to hear the Rabbit say to itself, “Oh dear! Oh dear! I shall be late!”

In another moment down went Alice after it, never once considering how in the world she was to get out again.

"Would you tell me," said Alice, a little timidly,
"why you are painting those roses?"

Five and Seven said nothing,
but looked at Two.

At this moment Five,
who had been anxiously looking across the garden,
called out "The Queen! The Queen!"
and the three gardeners instantly
threw themselves
flat upon their faces.
